Letter from the Publisher

AS WE APPROACH OUR SPRING 2024 SEASON, I am excited by the hard work and creativity put into our upcoming titles by my new, incredible dream team at Pajama Press. We recently went through a staff restructuring due to the unexpected resignation of long-time Associate Editor, Erin Alladin, who left in June due to health issues. We wish Erin well with her ongoing recovery.

Our team now includes, Emma Davis, a recent Centennial College Publishing graduate with a Masters of English from Wilfrid Laurier University, who joined us as intern in late July, and is now shining as our full-time Editorial & Marketing Assistant.

Simin Dewji, who has been with us for over a year as the Sales &

Marketing Assistant, has been promoted to our in-house Designer, which is well deserved considering the fresh energy and fabulous creativity she is pouring into our books, covers, and marketing materials. Jenny La, our new Office Administrator, who was previously our Client Business Advisor at the Royal Bank, is proving to be just as valuable as she always was for me at the bank, and more. Quinn Baker, our Sales & Marketing Manager, continues to lead our team with confidence, skill, and extraordinary versatility. This year, Quinn added Foreign Rights Sales to his responsibilities, and he has flourished in this role since his trip to Bologna in March.

Our North American marketing efforts at Pajama, which has always been a strong focus, wouldn't have such incredible success without the expertise of Myrick Marketing & Publishers Spotlight. I would like to extend my sincerest thanks and gratitude to Ellen Myrick, Stacey Ashby, Rebecca Gibson, and their amazing team who feature our titles at countless US conferences, for US award submissions, and all sorts of other important venues. We value their knowledge and incredible contacts which has helped our books gain recognition since we became a client in 2014.

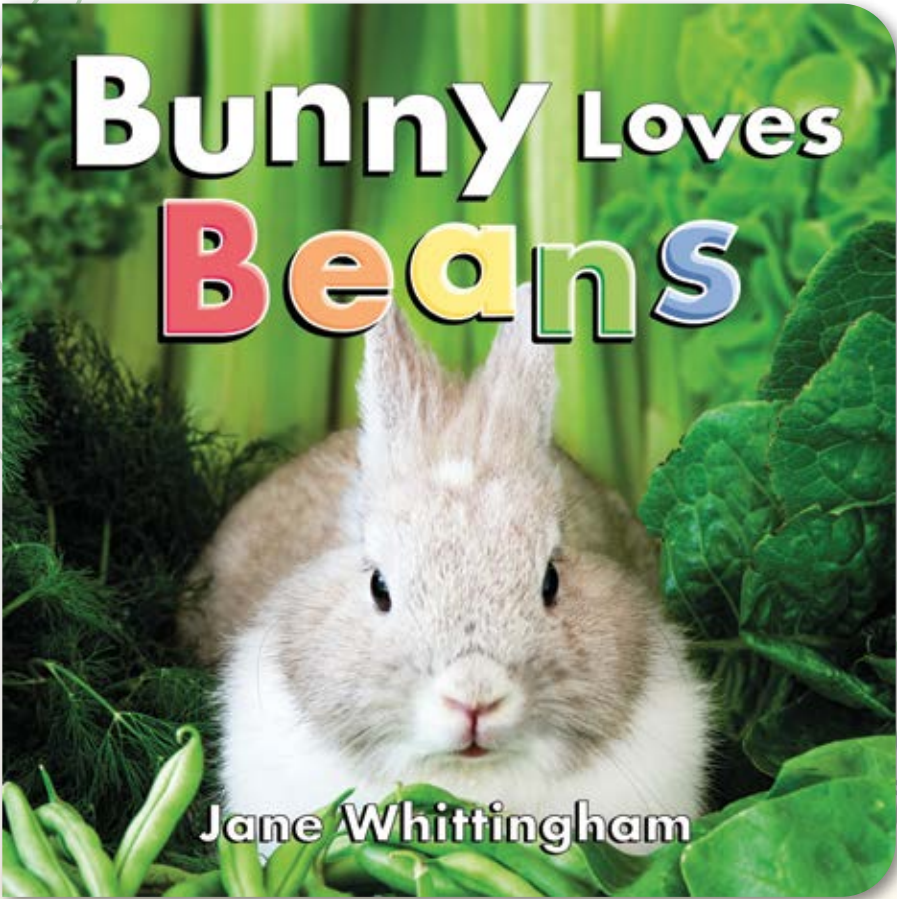

This season, we have an exciting, fresh list that I'm sure you'll enjoy. To discover more about our books, please look to our website (pajamapress.ca), Edelweiss, CataList, or Bookmanager. And always know that any assistance you might require with supply, discounts, or anything, is only an email message away.

Warmly,

Gail Elizabeth Winskill, Publisher

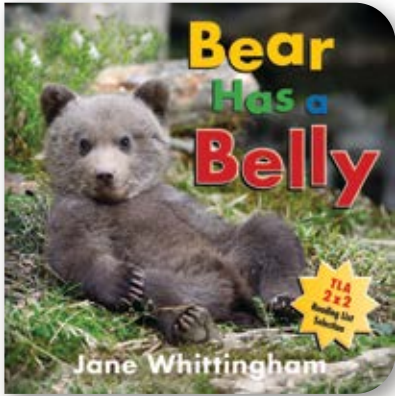

From the author of the 2023 Texas 2×2 Reading List Selection, Bear has a Belly, comes another Big, Little Concepts photographic celebration! Preschoolers will be delighted as they explore colorful foods to enjoy, and the animals that love them too!

Fresh green, tender green, / Snipped from the ground green. / Green for a deer, / And green for me! From the Big, Little Concepts series, this multilayered concept book celebrates the colors of healthy foods that people and animals both eat, featuring closing activities for a dynamic story time!

Look Inside:

From the award-winning author of Nim’s Island and Dragonfly Song, a gripping novel about a family’s will to endure, mystical horses, and the beauty of self-sufficiency and restoration.

The valley of horses, an inescapable safe haven filled with mystical horses, has been Honey’s home for seven peaceful years. When Honey’s father falls ill, it’s up to her to discover a way out of the valley to seek help from a place, and people, Honey only knows from stories.

The award-winning author-illustrator of Happy is back to celebrate the journey of parenthood. Mies van Hout’s vivid and expressive chalk birds convey the joys and challenges of raising little ones.

“Extraordinary colors and single words describe the journey of bird parents and children....While certainly a work that will appeal to parents, it will also delight children with the profusion of color and the single words illustrated with so much energy and imagination.”

—Kirkus ★ Starred Review

“Surprise, which has humor as well as sweetness, should appeal to children and perhaps especially to their mothers...”

From the creators of Percy's Perfect Friend.
Melodramatic Leah goes through all the highs and lows of schoolyard rejection, a joyful new friendship, and empathetic generosity toward other lonely souls.

Look at me, Lonely Leah—the only lonely fairy in line! Laugh along as dramatic Leah navigates her first schoolyard rejection and practices the art of making friends. Will she remain caught up in her own loneliness? Or will she open herself enough to notice she isn't so alone after all?
